

The Leopard Changes Spots

Calgary Herald to Become Independent Journal—New Editor J. H. Woods

The Calgary Herald will in future be an independent paper. Mr. J. H. Woods, of the West-News-Advertiser Agency, Toronto, and brother of Mr. B. H. Woods, deputy attorney general of Alberta, becomes associated with Mr. J. F. Young in the management of the Herald. Mr. Woods will take charge of the business and editorial departments at once. Mr. Young remains president of the company.

James H. Woods, the new managing director, is one of the best known and ablest newspaper men in Canada. Born in the city of Quebec, he came to Winnipeg in 1902, and lived in Manitoba and East Kootenay for nearly eleven years. He knows Alberta and the West thoroughly, having travelled them many times.

In 1902, he went into journalism as a member of the Mail and Empire staff, representing that paper for several years in the press gallery of the Ontario legislature and the House of Commons. He then became news editor of the Montreal Herald, leaving that to become city editor of the Mail and Empire in 1907. The business management of the Toronto News was shortly afterwards offered to him, a position which he filled until three years ago, when he went into business for himself, and organized a company—now Woods-Norris, Ltd., of Toronto—which has become one of the most successful advertising agencies in Canada.

The Herald is one of the oldest and most enterprising newspapers in the west. It has throughout its entire history been a strong supporter of Conservative principles and policy.

What Bradstreet's Says of Conditions

Of Trade in Canada—No More Car Blockades in the West—Grain Being Shipped.

Special to the Bulletin. New York, March 22.—Bradstreet's says today: "Wheat trade in Canada is brisk, but collections are complained of. This is due, partly no doubt to bad roads affecting retail distribution in the country districts. Cotton goods are not so brisk. Millinery openings have been largely attended, and building will be very active. Car blockades in the west are reported as an end, and Winnipeg is receiving large quantities of grain of excellent quality.

The near approach of the opening of navigation is expected to help Montreal trade. Building materials are active and higher at Toronto, where complaint is general. Manufacturers of all kinds of goods are behind on orders. Trade is brisk in British Columbia, the lumber industry is booming and labor is scarce. Fallures for the week number 22 as against 22 last week, and 29 in this week a year ago.

IMMIGRATION SITUATION.
Immigrants Can Not Get Passage For Canada in Great Britain.

London, March 22.—One hundred emigrants from Aberdeen who were detained for Grand Trunk Pacific construction work were to have sailed Saturday, but they were told it was impossible to take them for a month, reason for Canada being so overcrowded. Many of these were married men who had given up their work and sold their homes to go to Canada. They were greatly disappointed and in many cases speak of taking legal proceedings.

Yet appeals are still made on behalf of the Chronicle's fund to send emigrant families to Canada, under the Salvation Army emigration scheme.

STRICT LAW FOR FORESTRY.

Canadian Association Presses Serious Resolutions—Preserves Should Be Enlarged.

Ottawa, March 22.—The Canadian Forestry Association has closed its annual convention. From the deliberations a number of resolutions were passed, and that permanent provision for certain additional regulations, which the government is asked to enforce most stringently, that the national forests may be preserved were passed. These resolutions will be forwarded to the Minister of Interior, the Commissioner of Crown Lands, and the provincial governments.

It was strongly urged that exploration should be made to determine what lands are suitable for settlement, particularly the country north of Saskatchewan, and that permanent reserves of timber areas should be conserved and enlarged.

That the government should take steps to encourage by legislation and by giving facilities or obtaining nursery stock for reforestation, particularly upon the prairies, was also put in the form of a recommendation. It was suggested that this might be facilitated by placing forest tree seeds on the free list.

Special measures should be adopted for the preservation of forests on outcrops which were in view in the many important ways in which the water supply affects the industries of the country.

The fire prevention system now in force was with heavy approval, but a need of increased watchfulness on the part of railways and surveying parties was emphasized. Prospective management of the Toronto News was shortly afterwards offered to him, a position which he filled until three years ago, when he went into business for himself, and organized a company—now Woods-Norris, Ltd., of Toronto—which has become one of the most successful advertising agencies in Canada.

GU GAI GICK IS AGAIN IN TROUBLE

Famous "Anger Min" Whose Fisheries Kept Vancouver Excited During 1902 and 1903.

Vancouver, B.C., March 22.—The famous "Anger Min," the Chinaman who in the fall of 1902 and spring of 1903 had all Vancouver in an uproar over a series of some forty or more murders which he successfully pulled off before being caught, is once more in the toils. In the old days he was known as Gu Gai Gick, and under that name he served a term of three years and six months in the penitentiary. After his release he disappeared from view and was never again heard of by the local police until the other night, when he was arrested after a clever piece of police work by P.C. Hood.

Glick, who prefers now to be known as Wah Sing, was seen by Hood to break a window in a canteen store late at night in the town of Kinnaird, a dealer in tobacco and candy. He made off immediately, but Hood, being quite sure that he was in the neighborhood, and in a few minutes had the satisfaction of seeing the Chinaman return and slide up to the window with the stolen goods.

At that time his activities extended over a period of seven months, and along with half a dozen others he was on every occasion entrusted with a bag of money by boring at and the lock with an auger. It was in this way that the name "Anger Min" was attached to the unknown individual.

He was finally caught in the act of entering a Hastings street store, Jack Brown, a specialist officer surprised along with half a dozen others for the very purpose. Jang, another Chinaman arrested is suspected of being an accomplice of Glick. He is held on a charge of having stolen property in his possession.

SHORT IN HIS OATH.

Secretary-Treasurer of Dauphin Branch.

Dauphin, March 22.—R. Macdonald, secretary-treasurer of the municipality of Dauphin, has been discovered to be some $2,000 short in his accounts. This is the statement issued by Mr. Wm. Murray, municipal inspector. It is the old story, "fast living" and speculation.

Wife and Three Children Frozen

To Death—A terrible occurrence in New Brunswick—the Fate of John Combs's Family.

Special to the Bulletin.

Bathurst, N.B., March 22.—News was received here yesterday morning of a fatal case which occurred at St. Simon, a small place between Grand and Shippegans Wednesday afternoon. During a heavy gale the roof and upper portion of John Combs's residence was blown down. The family had to leave the house. Combs took one child to the nearest house, a quarter of a mile distant, and returning for the rest of the family, got lost in the storm. Reaching the house the following morning in a very exhausted condition, he found his wife and three children in the snow frozen to death.

GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER.

Portage la Prairie, March 22.—Yesterday morning in the assize court the jury in the Lyle murder case were addressed by the crown prosecutor and the defense, and then retired at 11.30. After an absence of five hours during which they came back to have Lyle's statement read, and before the court was called to the verdict finding the accused guilty of manslaughter. The judge remanded the prisoner for sentence until tomorrow.

THE DEATH TOLL OF THE NEW ENGLAND QUART.

Special to the Bulletin.

Boston, Mass., March 22.—A total of 100 lives and four ships have been sacrificed to the storm and treacherous coast of New England and the maritime provinces for the winter just ended, according to the statistics compiled by the Associated Press today.

DISASTROUS RIZEN IN MOLDAVIA

Special to the Bulletin.

Vienna, March 22.—Seventy-five have died, 150 wounded, 400 farms devastated, 10,000 Jews homeless, and 8,000 fugitives to Austria as a result of the rise in northern Moldavia. The police in the smaller towns are powerless to check the mobs of communists.

Canadians at the Colonial Conference

Five members of the Dominion government go to London next month to represent Canada at the Colonial Conference. Sir Wilfrid Laurier being accompanied by Hon. Mr. Fielding, Sir Frederick Borden, Hon. William Patterson, Hon. T. B. Spence, and Hon. J. B. Macdonald.

With the exception of Hon. Mr. Brodeur, says a writer in the Toronto Globe, they have all been members of the Canadian government since the Liberal victory in 1906. Sir Wilfrid was his first laurels as an orator. A man of ideas, of courtesy, he is at the same time a practical leader and a firm believer in the cause of the people. On his previous visit to Great Britain his name has become a household word for his eloquence and for his fervent love for the race which though the Congress of his own people, has set the world an example in toleration and liberty. Sir Wilfrid has passed his 66th birthday, but he has recovered his former health, and is as vigorous and alert a statesman as at the Canadian Parliament.

As Minister of Finance for eleven years, Hon. W. B. Fielding has labored constantly with an intensity that only such a temperament could endure in the era of Canada's expansion. His early years in journalism were useful training both in industry and in the discussion of public questions. One of the characteristics of the minister of Finance is a vein to hear all the evidence and to be fair to both sides in a controversy. To public inquiry of moment in Canada was ever conducted with greater thoroughness and satisfaction to the people than that of the recent tariff commission over which Mr. Fielding presided. Now that the tariff is before Parliament, and the tidings of the Minister's labor is about over one can wish him a restful voyage across the Atlantic.

Good Feeling Now In Evidence

Miners and Operators May Yet Reach Amicable Settlement—Are Discussing Questions Relatively New.

Special to the Bulletin. Calgary, March 22.—The following is the official statement issued by the mining convention to the press committee: "The operators and miners held two full sessions today. The chairman and officers of the convention were appointed to the same positions on the strike committee. In the second session of this committee a general discussion took place, participated in by most of the members of the convention. To substantiate the claims put forward for increase and decrease on either side, as well as to elucidate how the uniformity of the scales provided by the miners was arrived at. A good deal of information was exchanged which may help to solve the outstanding difficulties.

DOWIE DID NOT FORGIVE KEMENIES.

Premised in His Funeral Sermon to Return With Rubies Ready to Destroy the Vipers.

Chicago, March 22.—Although the sermon prepared by Dowie was not used in the funeral rite, it was used for publication. It makes plain that Dowie did not forgive his enemies before he died, as he says that those who nursed him from childhood, "I shall return, and with rubies hand shall I exterminate the vipers and the dogs of hell that now hold high places in the City of Zion. They dream of the defense, and then of their dreams they thought they had prevailed over the first apostle. And now, priests and elders of Zion, I shall return in another form, brighter and more beautiful and ten thousand times more terrible, to cut ye off in the midst of your sins, and to win back Zion for the truth and for them that held to the word and kept it even."

There was a small-sized panic during the funeral ceremonies because of the announcement that another of Dowie's followers was to be buried the week three of his lieutenants who held similar positions under Dowie have died suddenly, and when it was said that a fourth was likely to die before morning several of the mourners ran from the tabernacle, shouting that Zion was accursed by God. This excited the rest of the congregation, and before the confounded leaders could get among the people to counsel quietness fully five hundred had left the building.

Mr. O'Toole, who is singing this week at the Bijou theatre, gave three songs that were enthusiastically received, besides a couple of monologues.

Mr. Silas gave two excellent piano solos, while Mr. Brennan treated the audience to a splendid patriotic song. The program concluded with a splendid recitation describing how the miners of Dead Horse Gulch behaved when he first saw "O'Connell."

Charles Lowery, of the North-End station, was taken by the Red Cross ambulance to the Misericordia Hospital yesterday. He is ill with appendicitis.

FIFTY MILLIONS TO ENLIGHTEN CHINESE.

John D. Rockefeller Desired to be Planning to Uplift Civilization in the Orient.

Washington, D.C., March 22.—John D. Rockefeller is planning to give $50,000,000 for the purpose of lifting the Chinese in their own country to the plane of civilization of the European people. The knowledge that this enormous sum is to be used to turn Oriental into the plane of modern civilization has been made public by the infatigable donor as to the best methods to be employed. This is the sum which has been consulted by what Mr. Rockefeller means when, immediately following his magnificent gift of $250,000,000 to the cause of general education, he said he believed and hoped before long to have something to announce which might be of greater interest to the public. This is to be his crowning effort in behalf of the world.

Briefly stated, it is Mr. Rockefeller's intention to endow in the Chinese empire many institutions of learning, unconnected in any way whatever with any religious organization. He will send many Chinese to the United States to study in the Chinese empire many by teaching and association the value of a higher civilization than that which they have known hitherto. It is thought that these upper classes will by their example turn the lower orders into the paths which their superiors in rank will be made to travel.

Institution will be established at Peking, Tsin, Tsin, Hankow, Chinkiang, Shanghai, Pootung, Changsha, in Hunan province, Chongking, in western China and in Canton.

It is a daring plan that the world's richest man has conceived. He intends with his money to make possible the new birth of an empire. He has witnessed for years the futile attempts of apostles of western civilization to uplift the Chinese people as a body and he has determined that the only way to reach them is by the influence of the oil king is that the influence of ruling classes, if it is only the influence of example, will be far more potent than the influence of lower classes, upon whom those in the higher strata in China look with intolerance.

CONFLICT OF JURISDICTION.

Toronto, March 22.—Speaking of the Hamilton railway bill passed by the Ottawa senate duplicating provincial legislation, Premier Whitney said this morning: "It is one of the strongest possible illustrations of the indefensible conditions now existing with reference to the consequences of conflict of jurisdiction between the Dominion and provincial government. A strong effort must be made to reconcile or limit this conflict, the present situation being intolerable."

Intercolonial Has Surplus

Minister of Railways Presents Figures Showing Surplus of $93,000

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Ottawa, March 22.—The Hon. E. B. Patterson, Minister of Railways and Canals, presented figures which showed that the Intercolonial Railway for the year ending Dec. 31 had a surplus of $93,000. This addition makes the surplus, which has marked the administration of the Intercolonial under Liberal rule in the last decade, $379,000.

The minister said that twenty-four million dollars had been expended in Canada and fifteen millions in railway subsidies all over Canada.

In reference to his application of the C.P.R. for running rights over the Intercolonial from St. John to Halifax, he said that the government and the people ought not to part with any portion of the Intercolonial to any other corporation. If such action were taken it would give the corporation an opportunity of getting hold of the feelers and wresting the traffic from the government road.

TAKES IN ALBERTA.

The Alberta Legislature has passed Premier Rutherford's bill to tax practically all the public utilities and financial concerns doing business in the province. The interests affected include street railways, telegraph companies, telephone companies, lighting companies using gas or electricity, express companies, corporations taking money on deposit, private banks, insurance companies and trust and loan companies, all of which are to pay taxes, in varying degrees, for the purpose of the provincial government. The government of the new province seems to have made up its mind to begin at the beginning with the corporations. Practically all the outer reaches of the province, its legislators lay down the principle that these public utilities are fit subjects for taxation for provincial purposes. It disposes beforehand of the argument that such legislation is confiscatory, an argument that would surely be made if the province were to wait a few years before employing this means of raising revenue and it gives ample notice to intending investors that ventures of this nature hereafter to be established in the province that franchises to do business are conditional upon the payment of taxes by the people of a proportion of the proceeds of the franchises.—Ottawa Journal.

HOMESTEAD ENTRIES DOUBLED THIS WEEK.

A large number of land seekers are expected to arrive in the city next Monday and Tuesday from various points in the United States. The ex-cultivators are mostly killed for Alberta and the Edmonton district. Inquiry at the immigration hall elicited the fact that since the opening of the year more than double the number of settlers have made inquiry for land than last year. The majority so far have been Americans, although a considerable percentage are from the old country. Entries for homesteads at the land office have begun in earnest. The entries this week will be double those of last week, and the indications are that a larger number of settlers are coming than ever before. Plans of the newly surveyed townships are being filed in the land office every day and applications for homesteads received. The officials at the land office and immigration hall unite in saying the settlers are a splendid class and easy to deal with. Some of the letters received express a wide range of wants. One man recently wrote to the land office officials asking them to secure him a homestead with a slope to the south, some prairie on it, some wood, some hay sloughs and a trout stream. The reply of the office was that Providence had blessed this land with all these advantages but they were seldom comprised in the narrow compass of a quarter section.

CATTLE NOW IN GOOD SHAPE.

Calgary, March 26.—Henry Clark, a rancher, twenty miles west of Leduc, arrived in the city yesterday. Mr. Clark is on a prospecting tour with the object of securing a few good grazing grounds for his cattle, during the early spring months. Mr. Clark has a large band of cattle, which are all in good shape, and has had no loss during the severe winter, but the snow is yet of a considerable depth and his feed is almost exhausted, he purposes to remove a proportion of his stock to the Calgary district, where the spring grass comes early. In an interview Mr. Clark said: "I sympathized more with the cattle than with their owners. In this country or in any other country provision should be made for stock and where such is provided there will be very little loss in any winter. "During the past winter I have never failed to make over fifty pounds of butter per week from my cows, besides providing for my other stock."

BEAVER LAKE EAST.

There are quite a number of farmers here with grain still unthreshed, many are doing their best to get through what they can for the residents. Feed has in consequence been rather scarce. Mr. Joseph McCallum who has spent the past three months in Ontario, visiting friends in the East, has returned and reports the weather in Ontario as being more disagreeable than it was here. The damp air chills of people more than the dry cold here.

NO CARS POP LUMBER.

"Orders are simply piling in on us and we can't get them out. Our racks are full of lumber and we can't get cars to ship it." Thus spoke a prominent lumber man this morning to the editor of the "Star." The situation is becoming serious. With the opening of the season on the prairie lumber will be in greater demand, and purchasers will be unable to get it even if the cars were available and all the lumber in the yards could be shipped the demand could not be met, so logs are scarce.—Vancouver World.

TROPICAL FRUIT DIRECT TO EDMONTON.

You can discourage the use of impure foods by sending your orders where purity and cleanliness are the watchwords as in the case with this grocery. We sell the best food money can buy, and our business shows the people's appreciation.

The Fame Abroad Of Alec Kennedy

also, even to his intimates. He was under fire more than once on the Nile, but he remembers few of the accompanying circumstances—or, at least, he never will tell of them—perhaps because he has been shot at more than once at home and never has been hit. He will talk about African heat and African weather, however, when he feels like it. His disgust at all the Nile region, its lack of snow, ice and cold, its climate generally, in fact, is acute and profound. He holds uncompromising views of every part of the world he has visited except the Canadian Northwest.

Notwithstanding all this, Alec was a great success; as skilful and effective on the waters of the Nile as on the waters of the northwestern rivers. He was personally attached to the command of a young officer named Kitchener, who, later, after Roberts had had his day, was to succeed Wodehouse as Commander-in-Chief of the British army, and is now in charge of the army in India.

Alec Kennedy has been somewhat of a privileged character in the Northwest ever since his return from Egypt. He is not at all proud, however, and he does his work as guide, interpreter, cook and general factotum, when out with an expedition of Canadian officials among the Indians, as well and faithfully as ever. Like all of his type, he seems to be proof against hunger, cold and weariness, and he is a master of woodcraft as well as of watercraft.

He knows how to select a spot for a night's camp and he knows how to get a camp ready in an incredibly short time better than almost any one in all the Northwest except his cousin, Alec Bouglas. The latter, who guided Mark D. Wilbur of New York on his northwestern journey in 1902, is quite the equal of Kennedy in wood and water craft, but never having been in Africa is not so famous in Athabasca and other far northwestern places.

APPROVED SALARY SCHEDULE.

The City Council stamped its official approval on the departmental salary schedule recommended by the Commissioners, which has already been published. In the case of the auditor's salary being placed at $900 a quarter, Alderman Daly considered it high, and he said so. The salary of the market clerk, which was recommended at $50 per month, was also objected to by Alderman Anderson and Daly on the ground that a man could be secured for less money. It was said, too, that when the present market clerk was away last year a substitute had been secured who did the work for $50 per month.

The Fame Abroad of Alec Kennedy, the Indian Guide

Alec Kennedy, the guide well-known here, is the subject of an interesting article recently published in the Toronto Globe. It says that "Alec" Kennedy, tall, straight, 55 or thereabouts, with a face that shows his mixed Scot and Sioux blood, is one of the most interesting Indians who have ever been called upon to help bear the white man's burden.

He is also one of the most famous characters in all the Canadian Northwest, where he is now living out the remainder of his life, after having served the British government so faithfully in Africa that he was granted two service medals, one by the British and one by the Egyptian government.

Kennedy's headquarters are at Edmonton, on the upper Saskatchewan river. He is in the employ of the Indian department of the Canadian government, and has been most of the time since the Hudson's Bay Company's territory was taken over. Before the change he was employed by the company. His present occupation is that of guide and interpreter to the Indian commissioner and other government officials who have to travel in the North-West which he knows as well as any other man alive, either white or copper-colored. In his early days he was a bateau man.

There was no one then, there is probably no one now, in all the vast North-western wilderness who was more expert in handling the long river boats called bateaux both by the early French fur hunters and their British successors than Alec Kennedy. These boats are long, shallow, much wider amidship than at either bow or stern. Apparently, no more clumsy craft could well be designed. In the hands of men skilled in their management, however, they are ideal for the navigation of the swift, tumultuous northern rivers, and even to the present day first-class bateau men are essential to the prosecution of commerce there, since few steamers have as yet vexed the Athabasca, the Mackenzie, the Peace, the Liard or any other of the great famous north-western streams.

Kennedy is descended from a member of the famous party of Scots, led by Lord Selkirk, who went into the Hudson Bay territory as settlers a hundred years or more ago. His grandfather was, therefore, white, but the Indian blood undoubtedly predominates in him. He himself has carried a full blood and has several children.

Alec owes the opportunity to serve the British government in the tropics as well as in the Arctic and north temperate zones to Louis Riel, the French half-breed who twice placed himself at the head of organized rebellion, first in 1869-70 and later in 1870.

Alec Kennedy was at the head of a band of bateau men in Government and of bateau men in government employ while the Red River rebellion was being put down, and his work was so well done, the transportation of whatever in the way of stores and ammunition entrusted to him was so invariably got through on time, with everything in good condition, so especially to attract Wolsley's personal attention.

When Wolsley was sent into Egypt in the relief of "Chinese" Gordon and his small force of Englishmen he met many transportation difficulties. The fact that the expedition to Khartoum would involve a great deal of river transportation on the Nile, where few steamers were available, recalled Alec Kennedy and his skill and intimate knowledge of the ways of rivers, of boats and of boatmen to Wolsley. If Kennedy could do more work in his line than any other man Wolsley had ever known; if he were an able commander of turbulent bateau men in Canada, why was he not a good man to take along on the Khartoum expedition?

It was true that there were differences between the great Arctic American streams and the greatest African river; it was true that the boatmen of the Nile were unlike those of Canada and that the climate of Egypt and the Sudan were as different from that of the Canadian Northwest as the climates of two regions on the same old earth well could be. But Alec was strong, hardy, alert and faithful; Wolsley believed he would be a big help to the expedition. The outcome was that the Scotch-Indian was sent for by the Commander-in-chief and bidden to select a party of bateau men to accompany him.

Lacoin, as the Indian generally is, Alec Kennedy has never said much of his experiences under the southern

DAY TO DAY

THE POET'S PROPHECY.

The woman's cause is man's; they rise or sink together, dwarf'd or Gothic, bond or free. For she that out of Leda's coils was born, The shining steps of Nature, shaves with man His nights, his days, moves with him to one goal, Stays all the fair young planet in her hands.

Woman is not unlovely man But diverse: could we make her as the man, Sweet Love were slain; his dearest bond is this, Not like to like, but in difference. Yet in the long years liker must they grow.

The man be more of woman, she of man; He gain in sweetness and in moral height, Nor lose the wrestling thence that show the world; The mental breadth, nor fall in childward care, Nor lose the childlike in the larger mind; Till at the last she sets herself to man Like perfect music unto noble words.

—Tennyson.

"THAT—ELUSIVE PASS—"

There are some amusing stories in the recently published Memories of Major General Owen Tudor Burnes, a brave old soldier who had had experiences all over the British Empire. One of these concerns the late Duke of Cambridge, who had to make a speech at a large dinner given to Lord Roberts in London in recognition of his Afghan services.

"He spoke, as usual, very well and eloquently till he came to the capture of the Peiwar Pass in Afghanistan, which was regarded as a great feat in Roberts' cap. The Duke said: 'And now I come to the Peiwar Pass—the well known Pass (Where the — was the Pass? he whispered to those near at hand), the wonderful operations at the Pass—the Pass (Where the — was the Pass? he whispered the Duke again, getting very hot and angry) where our brilliant covered himself with glory—I mean the Pass—'

"What is the name of that — Pass? at last he roared, and some one near at hand whispered 'Peiwar,' and we all cried with laughter, while the Duke shook himself together, became as glib as a dove, and went on to a very good speech."

A MAN'S HOME.

A man's home is his castle, and it ought to be his home. That it is his castle is his right by law. To make it a real home depends upon himself.

GRENFELL OF LABRADOR.

Dr. Grenfell, whose missionary hospital work along the dreary Labrador Coast is one of the finest stories of human endeavor in the present age, has been addressing enthusiastic audiences in Ontario lately in the interest of his work.

A man who has not him and some under the spell of his splendid earnestness and self-sacrifice writes of him in a Toronto paper: "You want to see a man out of the Bismarck? Go to hear Grenfell, of Labrador. All your life long, maybe, you have wondered how men looked and spoke who 'left all and followed Him.' You can see the bearing of such a man today. Have you ever known people to whom life is really simple, who see everything in a white light, who march like soldiers all day long and every day in the year, who work miracle because they give up everything else, and eat, breathe, think, and pray for Africa, Labrador, or the submerged tenth, the one desire of their hearts?"

If you have, then you have known Grenfell. Such a man was Livingstone, whose name still marks a tree by the Falls of Zambesi. If you want to understand Savannah's better, see the man from Labrador. Here is someone in the twentieth century speaking with the accent of one of the apostles and thinking their thoughts. There are very few of them in the world. They are the pride of one generation and the just envy of all the rest. It is worth while taking the trouble to see a Grenfell.

When you do see him, what are you going to look for? He is a man like other men, not tall nor short, not noticeably dark nor fair. But he stands with the steadiness of rock, insensible if you can, Grenfell, to a storm at sea. He has no fear. The more statement is absurd. Fear does not exist in his world. To him earth is heaven, and heaven includes earth. He is a man of the world and the hand of God is. That is what Grenfell's steadiness means. He is not everything that would hinder him in his race; and his steadiness makes him big things shrink and small things grow great. How would you like that standard against you? How much would it leave in your hand?

He will convince you that if ever a man found for himself pleasant, desirable work, he is that man. He is happier than anyone else can be, in the recognition of people who are doing the same kind of work in their own way. It doesn't mean anything but rougher than most of us eat harder lodging than most of us cook, and make big things shrink and small things grow great. How would you like that standard against you? How much would it leave in your hand?

IS MISS NEAL IN CANADY?

Persons in the East are wondering if either of the persons mentioned in this despatch are now living in Canada. The despatch from Liverpool says: No trace has yet been discovered of Miss Margaret Beatrice Neal, the Nottingham school teacher, who vanished mysteriously from her home a month ago.

Her relatives, however, now express the fear that a love affair may have preyed upon the girl's mind, and that this was the cause of her disappearance. Several years ago Miss Neal became engaged to a young man in Nottingham, who a few months later left for Canada. For some time a regular correspondence was carried on between them, but eventually, it is said, the young man ceased writing, stating as an excuse that his prospects precluded the idea of marriage. Last Christmas he returned to Nottingham on a visit to his relatives, but it is said that he took no steps to renew the former friendship with Miss Neal, and that she was a good deal troubled in consequence.

On February 8 he left Liverpool for Canada, and several hours after the vessel in which he sailed left port. Miss Neal, and that she was a good deal troubled in consequence. ### SOME ROYAL ABSTAINERS.

The practice of abstaining altogether from alcohol has widely prevailed the highest circles of society. Queen Victoria of Spain does not know the taste of alcohol. Her special "tipple" is made from orange-juice, the fruit pressed into a glass, which is filled with aerated water. Both Princess Christian's daughters, too, are teetotallers.

The Princess of Wales, who is an exceedingly considerate mistress on the spot because, contrary to instructions, she had given Prince Edward, when he was a nip of the wine allowed her for lunch. All the children of the prince and princess are being brought up strict teetotallers, and save for the one taste of wine Prince Edward had from his nurse, they know nothing of alcohol. Princess Patricia of Connaught and her married sister also abstain wine. Another royal teetotaler is the Duchess of Argyll, and the two young daughters of the prince royal, Alexandra and Maud, have never in their lives touched wine.

Not only is the Duchess of Sutherland a teetotaler, but she is also a vegetarian. Another who takes neither meat nor wine is Lady Essex, the pretty American peeress.

PERSONAL.

Mr. J. R. Boyle, M.P.P., has gone to Winnipeg and Montreal. Mr. George Reid of the Dominion Land office left Thursday afternoon for a trip to the Coast and to secure a needed rest.

Mr. Will Kennedy, who has been out of the city for the past five months on a visit to his parents Port Huron, and with other Ontario friends, arriving home Thursday. Mrs. Jas. McKinnon, Eight street, leaves next week on an extended visit to relatives and friends at Victoria, San Francisco, Salt Lake City and eastern points, will be out of the city for at least six months.

Murdock McIntire returned to Edmonton Thursday (for being absent last winter visiting at his old home near Kinnear and at other Ontario points. He states the eastern winter was a long-drawn-out affair with plenty of cold and he is glad to get back to Sunny Alberta.

WILL BUILD ANYWAY.

At the last regular meeting of the City Council E. C. Dobell asked permission to erect a wooden building with metallic covering on McDougall Avenue between the Crystal block and the Nelson-Smith office. The request was refused as the building in question would be in contravention of the fire limit by-law.

Mr. Dobell has now taken out a permit for a brick structure 20x26 feet to cost $1,500. The building will be completed in about two weeks time and will be used as the offices of the E. C. Dobell Coal Co.

The committee on the gas franchise will present a report at next Tuesday's meeting of the city council.

HOSPITAL NOTES.

Mr. William Mead, of the C.N.R. was Thursday removed from the Sanatorium to the City Hospital, as a typhoid patient.

Mrs. Goldborough has returned to her home, Conradsmont, from the Minto hospital.

A man named Pringle who slipped and fell before the Windsor hotel Thursday, received a cut beneath his eye. He was taken to the Public Hospital and the wound was sewn up.

A BARRER OPPOSITION.

A term in opposition is commonly regarded as a probationary period wherein a party qualifies for government. Here freed from the exactions of administrative duty and the burden of "constancy" its leaders are expected to get their bearings to study the problems of the hour, to decide upon how best to solve them and then offer their plans to the public in competition with those of the government. But like many another theory this does not always work out in practice. The Conservative party has been in opposition in Canada for a decade; but so far as the development of any intelligible and comprehensive policy is concerned they might as well have gone into opposition yesterday. There is today, as there has been for ten years past only one policy before the people of Canada—the policy enunciated by the Liberal party in 1893 and repeated and illustrated in the record of the government. Be that policy good or bad, wise or otherwise, the choice today is as it has been between that policy and no policy at all. So far as the opposition in the Canadian parliament is concerned that body has simply performed the mechanical function of opposing what ever the government has proposed. It has not made, and apparently has no intention of making any serious attempt to formulate a general policy for the management of national affairs. A more useless sort of opposition it would be difficult to imagine—one which has done less to justify its existence it would be impossible to discover, or one that more richly deserves to be called to account for its demonstrated lack of constructive statesmanship.

GENEROUS PRAISE.

The Calgary Herald, the official organ of the opposition in Alberta, has nothing but praise for the administration of Hon. A. C. Rutherford. The Herald justly remarks that the backbone of provincial prosperity has its root in the details of the executive work of the government. In addition it may be as justly said that the executive departments of the provincial administration are in the hands of men who have a scrupulous regard for the welfare of the province and their stewardship without respect to party consideration. During the short time of their administration they have shown courage and ability, not afraid to exploit the experience of the older provinces, nor to strike out into untraveled paths in the field of legislation where such legislation was necessary for the well-being of the province.

The following opinion of the Herald will be warmly appreciated by the supporters of the administration, and particularly gratifying to the Premier: "The government is to be congratulated upon the fact, fortunately both for itself and the province, of having with it in the executive work the abnormal and striking vitality of Alberta life and finance as a whole."

Apart from this the financial statements generally for 1906, and the estimates for 1907, show a breadth and respect for the demands and the needs of Alberta, and indication of a desire to keep pace with the flowing tide of prosperity which has set in in our history.

"A few moments' consideration of the actual figures of the proposed expenditure for this year should strengthen the belief and faith of every Albertan in the future of his province."

Starting with a total surplus from 1900 and 1906 of $265,195, there will be due from the Dominion government a subsidy of $1,244,125. It is also anticipated that the amount secured as a result of the provincial conference will be received, viz: $130,000, and a refund from Ottawa for administration of land office of about $50,000.

After giving the detailed statement of the estimate the Herald concludes: "It will be seen that the great expenditure of public works, under the direction of Hon. Mr. Cushing, has estimates of well over a million dollars. The entire estimate seems a very satisfactory one."

NOTE AND COMMENT.

It looks as if the circus will be here before the spring season.

A Thaw trial and a Harriman Bear raid is too exciting even for New Yorkers.

Mr. Whitney has passed a resolution in favor of the coming peace conference. Does this mean he is about to discard his stock of war clubs?

Pennsylvania has elected a negro as a Rhodes scholar to Oxford. To this date no news of a social revolt has reached us from that home of cultural ease and elegant conservatism. What a broad thing genuine culture is!

One Birmingham is to organize the Orangemen and one the Conservatives. One of them will be out of a job. The Calgary Herald thinks that it is the only thing about which people have to write. Oh, no! Wrong again! People only talk about the Herald. They never write. It would be shocking in print.

SOCIAL.

On the occasion of his birthday yesterday Master Jack Marshall entertained a number of his playmates at a very jolly supper party in his home on Mackay avenue. "Buttons" and "London Bridge" filled merrily the usual gap before the supper which at this young folk's party terminated in a table spread with dainties and decorated with crimson carnations and ferns, with broad crimson satin ribbons crossing the table diagonally.

The assistants of the many young host. The little folks present were: Dick Secord, Alice Whistler, Herbert Edwards, Donny Macdonald, Lois McLean, Tommy Cross, Helen Edwards, Dorothy Harcourt, Isabel Secord, Jean Harbottle and Miss Macdonald.

At the delightful little entertainment given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Harcourt, for her sister-in-law, Mrs. James Harcourt, the perennial fascinations of varied needlework daintily and practically, were manifested in a degree to make bridge tremble for its supremacy.

The hostess, who was a girlishly clamor, was assisted in receiving by Mrs. James Harcourt. After a pleasant interval of needlework an enjoyable buffet-supper was served to the guests at small tables. The decorations were of fragrant crimson carnation and tall sprays of asparagus fern. The guests invited were: Mrs. John A. McDougall, Mrs. Biddell, Mrs. Beck, Mrs. Duncan Marshall, Mrs. Secord, Mrs. Hishop, Mrs. Manson, Dr. Scarlet-Synges, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Myers, Mrs. Gillespie, Mrs. Wells, Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Nicholls, Mrs. Jeffrey, Mrs. Biles, Mrs. Mills, Mrs. McKinnon, Mrs. Carpenter, Miss Margaret Clark, Miss Alice McDougall, the Misses Perkins, Miss Hughes, Miss Crawford.

VERMILION.

On Friday evening at the Presbyrian Church, a fan-vell supper was given by Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Vandrick and their daughter, Beanie organist of the church. The Ladies Auxiliary Society provided a dainty lunch. Our worth pastor, Mr. Shoup, presided in his usual happy fashion. Mayor Burnham being called upon for a speech, read an address from the choir to Miss Beanie Vandrick, and Mrs. McClinton made the presentation of a beautiful lady's campaign. A more representative and sociable gathering never met in Vermilion. Mr. and Mrs. Vandrick and daughter leave for their old home in the East on Wednesday.

STRATHCONA

SCHOOL LITERARY MEETINGS.

A very interesting feature of the literary programme at Grandin street school on Friday was the presentation of the cup to Standard V hockey champions. Mr. Dobson, on behalf of the donors the teachers of the school made the presentation with appropriate comment and the acceptance was performed by Capt. Lynn, whose modesty forbade more than a graceful bow, while the entire proceedings were attended by vociferous cheers from the audience. The names of the members of the winning team are: C. Clark, J. C. Sutherland, C. Scarborough, K. Purdy, W. McKewen, H. Rhinids, R. Loran, (captain). The following highly meritorious programme was rendered:
